APICS Educational and Research (E&R) Foundation

Donation Form

Support Research with Practical Application

The APICS E&R Foundation provides the nation's premier forum for operations management research, educational programs, and curriculum development. The foundation publishes results from practitioner-friendly applied research in subject areas including

- operations and supply chain management
- supply chain performance improvement
- performance measures
- curriculum development
- manufacturing and marketing function integration
- organizational information integration

Encourage the Next Generation of Leaders

The E&R Foundation is actively involved in managing the APICS CPIM Pearson Vue Jumpstart program in addition to awarding stipends to Ph.D. students through the annual George and Marion Plossl Dissertation Research Awards, to promote education and encourage interest in the profession of operations management. Additionally, the Scholars Education Program offers members of APICS student chapters the opportunity to attend the APICS International Conference and Exposition to build their professional network and learn about the profession.

Elevate the Operations Management Profession

The expansion of the APICS body of knowledge will ensure the continued progress and value of operations management practices worldwide. The APICS E&R Foundation, as the leading source for continued development, is your resource and relies on industry support to stimulate industry advancement.
