

Get a Head Start on Your Career

APICS Membership: Working for You

APICS membership provides you with a wide array of timely news, proven practices, essential resources, and expert connections to help you excel in your operations management education and future career.

Make the most of your APICS membership. Get involved with your local chapter, attend educational events, read APICS publications, and visit apics.org/membership for complete access.

APICS International Conference & Expo

Student members pay just $99 to attend the APICS International Conference & Expo—that's a savings of more than 80 percent. This premier event is attended by thousands of professionals who come together to explore the latest industry trends and techniques. Visit apicsconference.org for more information.

Scholars Education Program

The APICS Scholars Education Program selects students to attend the APICS International Conference & Expo with expenses fully or partially paid by APICS. Students have the opportunity to attend presentations and meet with featured and educational session speakers, network with conference attendees, and visit the APICS conference. To learn more visit apics.org/scholars.

Additional member savings of $25 (US) on APICS CPIM exams

New and current APICS student members are eligible to save 25 U.S. dollars on each of the five APICS CPIM exams. To learn more apics.org/membership/categories/student/programs.htm.

APICS CPIM Pearson VUE Jumpstart Program

The APICS CPIM Pearson VUE Jumpstart Program will provide 100 APICS student members with vouchers for the Basics of Supply Chain Management exam. The program better prepares you for the growing marketplace, by enabling you to explore the basic concepts in managing the flow of materials in a supply chain. To learn more visit apics.org/Education/ERFoundation.

APICS Career Center

Student members have full access to the APICS Career Center. They can use the site to get a jump start on their career by applying for jobs online and posting their resumes online for review by potential employers. Student members can also subscribe to the job alerts service which provides e-mail alerts when new listings are posted that meet specific criteria. Visit the APICS Career Center now at apicscareercenter.org.

APICS Student Dual Memberships

All APICS student members enjoy dual membership with two leading industry organizations

- Association for Manufacturing Excellence (AME)
- American Society of Transportation and Logistics (AST&L)

To learn more about all the benefits of AME and AST&L dual membership, visit apics.org/membership/categories/student/programs.htm.

Affiliated Student Chapters

APICS has 200 affiliated student chapters on college campuses throughout North America. A student chapter's affiliation with a professional chapter provides students with access to educational programs, networking opportunities, certification exams, and other resources that will help build a stronger career.

Starting a new APICS affiliate student chapter is easy, if you have the three following ingredients:

- Drive—Drive to succeed
- Leadership—An academic advisor with leadership abilities
- Membership—A minimum of 15 student members (new and existing) are required

For more information e-mail chaprel@apics.org or view the Chapter Locator to find a professional chapter in your area to sponsor you, visit apics.org/apics/chapters.aspx.
